A DAY OF COMMEMORATION AND CELEBRATIONS In commemoration and celebration of the 80th anniversary of D-Day, staff and pupils at St Bede's Catholic High School are aiming to create their own exhibition of World War II artefacts. If you have an artefact from World War II, D-Day, or the liberation of Europe 1944-45 that you can lend them to add to the exhibition, they would be very grateful. The exhibition will take place on the 6th June, in school and all items will be treated with respect and care. However, please be aware that if the items are delicate, the school will not be able to guarantee 100% safety. Any items loaned to the school should have your contact details displayed clearly on them and should be passed to the school reception during the day. In a museum, every artefact and document tell a story, so it would be helpful if you could provide as much information about the artefact as possible. All borrowed items will be available for collection on Friday 7th June, after the event. Pupils, parents, carers, governors and members of the local community will be invited to visit the display on the 6th June from 3:30pm until 5:00pm, followed by a drama documentary on the landings on Juno beach on D-Day from 5:00pm to 6:30pm. Thank you.
