

MASS TIMES AT ST JOHN THE EVANGELIST Mass will be held at St John's on Monday (8:30am), Wednesday (9:00am) and Friday (9:00am).

FIRST CONFESSION AND FIRST HOLY COMMUNION Please pray for our children as they prepare for these forthcoming sacraments.

MASS INTENTIONS The intention for Mass on a Sunday and on Holy Days of Obligation will be offered as Pro populo (for the people). Personal intentions will be offered at other Masses in the week. Please could this be borne in mind when requesting Mass Intentions. Thank you.

HEALTH AND SAFETY We recently had a health and safety risk assessment undertaken for the church carpark, particularly during the busy times around 9:00am and 3:00pm. We await the consultant's recommendations.

PARISHES ASHES PLOT The inscriptions for ashes interred during 2024 were undertaken last week. Please note that new inscriptions are added on an annual basis to save cost.

CREMATED REMAINS REMINDER Just to remind everyone that "the scattering of cremated remains is not permitted by the Catholic Church; nor is it permitted to keep the ashes of a loved one at home. Remains must be reverently interred in good time after the funeral, either in a special grave, or the family plot". (Extract from a Letter from the Congregation for the Doctrine of Faith 2016). There is special provision for ashes in our cemetery.

NEW PARISHIONERS If you have moved into the parish, or started attending Mass at our church recently, we would be grateful if you could fill out a revised form found on the stewards' table at the back of church. Many thanks.

COMING SOON At Our Lady and All Saints Church; Songs of Love and Praise - An Evening with David Massam ..... watch this space!
