OUR LADY OF PARBOLD BANNER

You will have noticed the banner outside the Lady Chapel at the front of church.

Made for the Marian Year declared by Pope Saint John Paul II for 1987, it was hand stitched by a group of ladies and young people in the parish.

It is displayed in its current position during May and October and has also been used by parish pilgrimage groups to Lourdes.

It has an interesting history, which you can read about on our website and look at some photos of the parish pilgrimages to Lourdes in 2008 and 2026:

Thanks to the parishioners who supplied this information.

'THE PRODIGAL SON THROUGH THE EYES OF REMBRANDT'

Thank you to Mary who gave us an interesting talk. We'll be more alert to the figures in the shadows... She challenged us to try to go to see the original!

Thanks to everyone who helped make this event possible: moving furniture and serving the refreshments. Thanks also to Our Lady and All Saints school for allowing us to use the hall. And lastly, thanks for coming and supporting this event!
